

Improving Identification and Services to Families in Transition

This workshop will help district administrators and clerks in the identifying families in transition. Attendees will also learn how to improve staff communication and how to increase community awareness of student needs.